

International Studies and Programs
Office for International Students and Scholars

Good Afternoon!

At OISS we are developing new methods to showcase the research and work your J-1 scholars, professors, and student-interns are conducting while at MSU.

If you have any questions regarding OISS's J-1 Scholar programming efforts, please feel free to contact our J-1 Scholar Intern Ethel Xu at xuyue6@msu.edu

1. Posters Needed for OISS's 2nd Annual International Scholar Poster Fair

We have scheduled a poster fair for Friday, April 20th, 2018 to allow J-1 scholars to present posters of their research at MSU, gain valuable experience explaining their work in public, network with colleagues, share ideas, and meet potential collaborators.

If you know of any J-1 scholars whose work should be showcased, please forward this link on to them and encourage them to sign-up no later than Friday, March 16th 5pm.

2. Nominees needed for Scholars of the Semester

Scholar of the Semester is our 2nd-year forum to celebrate the scholarship of J-1 scholars' achievements. It is designed to promote a culture of learning that values academic success as well as elevates awareness of the contributions J-1 scholars make at MSU.

If you who would like to nominate a scholar, please fill out the form here! Due no later than Tuesday, March 13.

3. Interviewees Needed for Blog

OISS is interviewing J-1 scholars about their experiences and the research they have conducted at MSU. The interview will be posted to a blog on the OISS website. Please encourage J-1 scholars to express their interest in being interviewed here. (We are not setting a deadline at this point.)
